Dun Laoghaire is a seaside town and a popular destination for locals and tourists alike. Ireland’s first ever railway connected the town to Dublin. Wonderfully located on the glistening south coast of Dublin bay, it can be reached by car (15-min drive from our hotel) or public transport. Walk along the famous 2.6km East Pier all the way to the lighthouse. The pier has featured in films such as Michael Collins (1996) and Sing Street (2016). Enjoy traditional fish & chips with the family or grab an ice-cream and chose a romantic stroll instead.

The People’s Park

Located in Dun Laoghaire, it features a playground and tea-rooms. Every Sunday enjoy a variety of artisan foods and crafts available at their farmers markets.

Airfield Estate

Airfield Estate is an urban farm and garden as well as a food destination promoting local produce. You’ll see farm animals and enjoy a great family outing. It’s just 10 minutes drive or 2 minutes by LUAS to Airfield Estate.

Marlay Park

Marlay Park is a well-known parkland near Sandyford. There are tennis courts, soccer, GAA and cricket pitches, a golf course and a miniature railway. It has become a popular music venue and concerts are often held in the park each year. There is a market held at the park every Saturday from 10.00am-4.00pm and Sunday from 11.00am-4.00pm where shoppers can avail of a range of artisan products and foods.
