

Bay & Sorrel

@Clayton Hotel Leopardstown

Restaurant Naming

The word Bay is inspired by the herb “bay”, an aromatic leaf commonly used in cooking. Bay is also a reddish-brown colour of a horse, used as a reference to our proximity and connection to the Leopardstown Racecourse, and of course, Bay is also linked to our community and location -Dublin Bay.

Sorrel is the fresh herb used in salads and fresh dishes. It is also a colour of a horse.

Chef's Statement

“Here at Bay & Sorrel, we are committed to ensuring that we maintain a sustainable approach to our food. All dishes are cooked to order using fresh local produce. Our main suppliers are all based in Ireland, and we work with them to ensure that their product is of the highest quality.

As our food is freshly prepared, we are able to offer dishes that can be adapted to special diets. Please let us know if you have any dietary requirements.”

*Eddie Kilpatrick
Head Chef*
